

The health and safety of pupils, employees and colleagues is of paramount importance to Chartwells and we take such matters seriously.

We work in partnership with our schools and authorities to ensure that premises that we operate in are to the standards expected. Working with Greenacre Academy Trust we have addressed the issues raised in the report and will continue to review with both the Academy and Environmental Health over the coming months.

Chartwells